F. L. Woodward and M. H. Taylor drove out to Auburn Wednesday.
Mrs. E. M. Baker, of South Auburn, was in town a few hours Monday.
Mrs. Fannie Fairbank went to Auburn last Saturday, returning Sunday.
So far as we have heard, no Fourth of July accidents occurred in this vicinity.
Von Farson had a horse die last week on account of becoming overheated.
Mrs. M. H. Taylor went to Forest City, Mo., Friday of last week, to visit relatives.
The raspberries are about gone, but the luscious blackberries are taking their place.
Will Swan had a horse drop dead in the field a few days ago, from being overheated.
Mrs. Cora Crother went to Auburn last Saturday morning, returning in the afternoon.
Mrs. J. F. Wykes, of Syracuse, has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Crim, for the past week.
Little Gertrude McGandless is the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Stephen Gilbert, this week.
George Stillwell, of South Omaha, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stillwell, this week.
Mr. and Mrs. Albert Colerick, who now live near Shubert, visited Nemaha friends Thursday.
Ed Maxwell and Frank Titus went to Mound City, Mo., last Friday, returning home Tuesday.
L. D. Smith, who has been visiting in Missouri for some time, returned to Nemaha Wednesday of last week.
The freight train from the west is now due at Nemaha at 11:30 p. m., on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.
Mrs. R. J. Duff and children returned home last Saturday morning, after a visit of two or three weeks at Horton, Kan. as.
Frank Burlingham is acting as conductor between Nebraska City and Atchison, while Henry Carson is taking a much needed rest.
John L. Carson and family have returned to their handsome Brownville home, where they will abide the remainder of the summer.
Maple Grove school district—No. 37—tried a new experiment this year at the annual meeting, by voting direct for the teacher. Miss Lulu Clark received 16 votes, Miss Wirtz 15, and there were two or three scattering votes. And yet there is considerable dissatisfaction.

Dr. J. L. Melvin.
Office at residence, south of Minick store building.
ICE CREAM SOCIABLE.
The Methodist ladies' aid society will give an ice cream sociable at the church yard on Saturday evening, July 10th. The proceeds will be used in repairing the church. Everybody is invited.
Seymour Howe is the first man we have heard of in this section to begin threshing his wheat. W. W. Seid's steam thrasher commenced work Friday morning.
Little Glendon Crother fell down the cellar at Burl Hoover's residence last Saturday, and was unconscious from the shock for some time, but was not seriously injured.
S. Gilbert had a horse get badly cut on the barb wire a few days ago. The horse was tied to the fence and got one foot over the lower wire, and it was badly cut before being discovered.
Peter Muntz, who has been rusticating in Box Butte county for some time, returned home Sunday. He is well pleased with the country and talks of moving out there if he can sell his little farm here.
Tom Clark is feeling very proud over a fine "Wonder vocal" cornet horn, costing $70, which he received a few days ago from Cohn, the prince of horn manufacturers. It is the finest horn in the county.
The majority of the Nemaha folks stayed at home last Saturday, but a goodly number who felt like celebrating went to Auburn, some went to Brownville, others to Shubert, and a few to Barada.
The usual Fourth of July storm materialized last Saturday afternoon, and many of those who went away from home to celebrate were caught in the rain. Some of the young people did not get home until the next morning.
John Lewis was up from Shubert Wednesday, to meet his wife and daughter, who had been to Chicago to consult a faith healer about the daughter, who is an invalid. We understand they think she is some better.
At the school meeting in district No. 35, on the bottom northeast of Nemaha, they had a lively time, resulting in a knockdown and a free fight. Two of the parties interested afterward went to Auburn, plead guilty to assault, and paid their fine.
Robt. W. Coleman, a former citizen of Nemaha county, died at his home in Beatrice Thursday of last week, after a lingering sickness, from cancer. His wife is very low with the same disease. The remains of Mr. Coleman were brought to Auburn for burial.
Tom Clark lost a valuable horse last week from lockjaw. It had snagged one foot, but this was not discovered until lockjaw had set in. Doc Kyle, who is now living at Johnson, was telegraphed to and came in, but could do nothing for the horse. It was a fine bred animal and a great pet, and Tom is feeling very bad over its death.
Rev. C. H. Gilmore, of Brownville, will address the people of Nemaha on the prohibition of the liquor traffic July 14th, at 8 p. m., at the M. E. church. Bro. Huckins, of Nebraska City, will be there to sing. All who are opposed to the liquor traffic dictating the policy of this government are cordially invited. .
Private money to loan on farm security on the best terms that were ever made in Nemaha county, by Wesley Dundas, Auburn, Nebraska.
Kansas Champion will make the season of 1897 at my farm, one mile south of Nemaha. Terms, $7.00 to insure a colt to stand and suck.
J. H. SEID.

Peru was visited by another fire Thursday morning. The Times office, Mallory's restaurant and Dr. Neal's office were burned. We did not learn how the fire started nor what the loss was. Mr. Fordyce, the proprietor of the Times, had his application made out for insurance but had not sent it off, so he loses all he had invested in it. He has our sympathy.
The prettiest view we have seen for a long time is the cherry orchard at the Titus nursery. There are several hundred trees bearing this year for the first time, and almost every tree is hanging full of large red cherries. A man can reach the top of some of the trees. It makes almost any man resolve that he will set out an orchard if he has any land just to look through the Titus orchards.
Married.—At the residence of Geo. Davison, in South Auburn, Saturday, July 3rd, 1897, by John E. Crother, justice of the peace, Mr. William B. Flack, of Nemaha, and Miss Mary Majors, of Brownville. This is the first marriage ceremony 'Squire Crother has performed, but it is said he went through it as gracefully as if he was an old hand at the business. Mr. and Mrs. Flack have our best wishes for a happy married life.
Married, at the residence of the bride's parents in Fairbury, Ill., June 23, 1897, Miss Ella Armstrong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Armstrong, to Mr. Charles Colerick, of Nemaha, Neb. Miss Armstrong is an accomplished young lady, a graduate of the Fairbury high school, well versed in music, and a milliner. Mr. Colerick is an energetic young business man. A small party of relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony, after which a nice supper was served. Both the contracting parties are worthy young people who start in life with the best wishes of many friends. They will live in Fairbury. A FRIEND.
Rev. J. W. Taylor was seriously injured Friday of last week. He got in Steve Cooper's back to ride to the depot to take the train for Auburn. He sat down in the rear of the hack, and then partly rose to change his seat or move forward. The horses started just at this time and Mr. Taylor was thrown out of the hack. He did not think he was much injured, and got into the hack, rode to the depot and took the train for Auburn. When he got there he was feeling quite sick and suffering a great deal. He was taken to the residence of his daughter, Mrs. E. M. Baker, and put to bed. He cannot move himself and is suffering greatly. It is probable that he had not fully recovered from the injuries he received a few months ago by being knocked down while returning home from church, and the fall last Friday probably reopened the former injuries. On account of the old age of Mr. Taylor his recovery is very doubtful.
W. W. Sanders, Notary Public. Pen- sions papers of all kinds made out accurately. Legal documents drawn up. All business given prompt and careful attention.
SOMETHING TO KNOW.
It may be worth something to know that the very best remedy for restoring the tired out nervous system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This remedy is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centers in the stomach, gently stimulates the liver and kidneys, and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood. Electric Bitters improves the appetite, aids digestion, and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it. Sold for 50c and $1 per bottle at Taylor's drug store.

WANTED. 25 buggies to paint at the very lowest prices. If you are going to paint call see me. J. S. HADLOCK.
STRAY OBSERVATIONS.
Very little satisfaction can be secured from a political argument in Nemaha county these days. When a populist brags about state warrants being at par under the pop administration his republican opponent begins to crow about the better prices for corn and hogs under "McKinley prosperity." And there you are.—Advertiser.
Well, well, Brother Sanders, where did you get onto that "better prices for corn and hogs"? Didn't you know that the very moment your brainy assistant furnished you the above item corn was only 1 cent above the lowest price it ever was in the state and hogs were so nearly down to the 2-cent notch that the difference could scarcely be detected with the naked eye? The next time you venture on an item as old as the above you had better step to the phone and call up one of the buyers.—Granger.
Let's figure a little. Last December corn sold in Nemaha county as low as 11 cents. June 25th, the day THE ADVERTISER item appeared, the Auburn Herald and several other papers in this section of country gave the price of corn at 16½ cents, and hogs at from $3.00 to $3.10. There is quite a difference between $2 and $3.10 for hogs, and most of us in subtracting 11 from 16½ would obtain a remainder of 5½ instead of 1, but a man who spells the name of the capital of the great state of Nebraska "linkin" is liable to make most any kind of bad break. Mr. Dundas, who is always very quick to censure other papers for making false statements, should stop to figure before making rash assertions himself, if he can do so and still hold his job as editor of the organ of the great "reform" party bossed by George Cornell. .
Burning, itching skin diseases instantly relieved by De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve, unequalled for cuts, bruises, burns. It heals without leaving a scar. M. H. Taylor.
